Report on Celebration of 135th Birth Anniversary of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar

The 135th birth anniversary of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar, Bharat Ratna awardee and the architect of the Indian Constitution, was celebrated with great respect and enthusiasm at HKE Society's Sir M. Visvesvaraya College of Engineering, Raichur. The program was organized in the Seminar Hall in the presence of the Principal, teaching staff, and students.

The event commenced with a floral tribute to Dr. B. R. Ambedkar's portrait, symbolizing deep respect for his remarkable contributions to society. The Principal addressed the gathering and highlighted Dr. Ambedkar's role in shaping modern India, emphasizing his vision of equality, social justice, and education for all. The speech inspired students to follow his ideals of "Educate, Agitate, and Organize."

Faculty members also shared their thoughts on Dr. Ambedkar's life and his relentless efforts toward the upliftment of marginalized communities. The program created awareness about constitutional values and the importance of unity, equality, and human dignity. The gathering reflected a sense of pride and gratitude towards the great leader whose teachings continue to guide generations.

The program concluded with a vote of thanks, expressing appreciation to the Principal, staff, and students for their participation and cooperation in making the event a success. Overall, the celebration served as a reminder of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar's enduring legacy and reinforced the commitment to uphold his ideals in everyday life.
