Title: NSE Financial Literacy Session
Venue/Institution: SMVCE Raichur
Organized by: Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI), in association with Sepiri EduHub – Investor Awareness

Date and Time

- Date: 17 August 2026 (Monday)
- Session 1: 10:00 AM – 11:00 AM
- Session 2: 11:00 AM – 12:00 PM (India)

Introduction

A Financial Literacy Session was organized at SMVCE, Raichur with the objective of creating awareness among participants about the importance of saving, investing, financial planning, and protecting oneself from financial fraud. The session was conducted by SEBI (Securities and Exchange Board of India) in association with Sepiri EduHub – Investor Awareness. The resource person for the session was Shivcharan Tulshiram Fokmare.

Topics Covered

1. Importance of Saving and Saving Schemes

The session highlighted the importance of developing a saving habit from an early age. Participants were introduced to the concept of regularly setting aside a portion of their income or allowance for future needs. The discussion also focused on different saving schemes and how disciplined saving can help individuals meet future financial requirements and handle unexpected expenses.Participants can develop better saving habits and understand the importance of planning their finances instead of spending their entire income.

2. Basics of Investing and Financial Planning

The session provided an introduction to investing and financial planning. Participants were made aware of the need to set financial goals and plan their savings and investments according to their future requirements. The topic also helped distinguish between simply saving money and investing it for potential long-term growth.Participants gain basic knowledge that can help them make more informed financial decisions and plan for future goals such as education, employment, or other major expenses.

3. Identifying Financial Frauds and Scams

A major part of the session focused on financial fraud awareness. Participants were guided on identifying and dealing with various forms of fraud, including:

- Fraudulent or scam telephone calls
- Fake trading and investment platforms
- Phishing links
- Investment scams through social media and WhatsApp
- Spam-related threats

The session emphasized being cautious before sharing personal or financial information or making investment-related payments.This awareness can help participants recognize suspicious activities, avoid fraudulent schemes, and take appropriate precautions while using online financial services.

4. Safe Management of Personal Finances

The session also discussed practical dos and don'ts for managing personal finances safely. Participants were encouraged to handle their financial information responsibly and remain alert while carrying out online transactions or communicating with unknown individuals regarding investments.Participants can improve their financial safety, reduce the risk of falling victim to scams, and develop responsible money-management practices.

Overall Benefits of the Session

The financial literacy programme provided participants with useful knowledge about saving, investing, financial planning, and financial security. It encouraged participants to become more financially responsible and aware of the risks associated with modern digital financial activities.

The session was particularly beneficial in helping participants understand that financial literacy is not only about earning and saving money but also about making informed decisions and protecting one's finances from fraud.

Conclusion

The NSE Financial Literacy Session at SMVCE Raichur served as an awareness programme aimed at strengthening participants' understanding of personal finance. The knowledge gained from the session can help participants develop disciplined saving habits, understand basic investment concepts, plan their finances, and remain cautious against financial scams and online threats.
