“Report on Kalyana- Karnataka Liberation Day”

HKES's Sir M. Visvesvaraya College of Engineering, Raichur, celebrated the Hyderabad-Karnataka / Kalyana-Karnataka Liberation Day with great patriotism and enthusiasm. The event marked the historic day when the region achieved freedom from the rule of the Nizam and merged with the Indian Union, symbolizing the true spirit of independence and unity.

The program began with the hoisting of the National Flag, which was saluted by all staff, students, and dignitaries present. The fluttering tricolour denoted the path to freedom and sacrifice made by countless leaders and freedom fighters.

Governing Council Member Shri Nishanth G Yeli highlighting the significance of this day in history, its impact on the Kalyana-Karnataka region, and the importance of carrying forward the values of courage, unity, and progress. Students also actively participated by presenting their thoughts on the occasion, reminding everyone of the pride and responsibility that comes with freedom.
