“Report on Constitution Day”

H.K.E. Society's Sir M. Visvesvaraya College of Engineering, Raichur, celebrated Constitution Day with great respect and patriotism. The day is observed to commemorate the adoption of the Indian Constitution on 26th November 1949, which came into effect on 26th January 1950.

On this occasion, the Preamble of the Indian Constitution was read aloud, and all present took a solemn pledge to uphold the values of justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity enshrined in the Constitution.

Dr. Gurunath K B addressed the gathering, highlighting the significance of the Constitution as the supreme law of the land and the guiding force behind the world's largest democracy. The importance of unity in diversity and the need to strengthen democratic values were emphasized.

By celebrating Constitution Day, the institution reaffirmed its commitment to the principles of democracy and the responsibilities of every citizen in nation-building.
