“Report on Independence day”

H.K.E. Society's Sir M. Visvesvaraya College of Engineering, Raichur celebrated the 78th Independence Day with great enthusiasm and patriotic fervor on the college campus. The event was graced by the presence of the Principal, Dr. R. Basawaraja, and the Governing Council Member, Shri. Nishanth G. Yeli, along with faculty members, staff, and students.

The program began with the hoisting of the National Flag by Shri. Nishanth G. Yeli and Principal Dr. R. Basawaraja, followed by the singing of the National Anthem, which filled the atmosphere with pride and unity.

In his address, Shri. Nishanth G. Yeli highlighted the sacrifices of freedom fighters and urged the students to uphold the values of democracy, responsibility, and service to the nation.

Dr. R. Basawaraja, in his speech, encouraged the students to become responsible citizens by developing leadership qualities, discipline, and a spirit of innovation. He also reminded everyone that independence is not just about freedom but also about contributing positively to society, upholding moral values, and working collectively for the progress of the nation.
